Different sub-sections of this chapter are especially designed to provide a broad view on numerous aspects related to your personality. This Chapter contains the following main sections:

- Your Personality Score
- Description of your personality
- Your Personality type.

A word of caution: Trait scores of HIGH or LOW may not be equated to being GOOD or BAD. There are no good or bad personalities. Secondly, this test or Chapter does not measure or indicate any psychological disorder or otherwise. Every individual has a unique personality and this report provides an indication of the same. Candidates with different personality combinations do well in handling different kind of situations and perform well in different jobs. There is no absolute metric personality. Lastly, this Chapter is best interpreted by a trained psychologist.

SECTION I: YOUR PERSONALITY SCORES

Your personality assessment shall be provided on the following traits:

These traits are based on the Big Five Model of personality, now globally accepted as the most scientific and validated model of personality.

The table and figure below shows your Z-score and percentile in each trait. Each bar represents your Z-score in a personality trait.

Trait	Region	Percentile	Z- score
Extraversion	Low	29%	-0.56
Conscientiousness	High	100%	2.38
Emotional Stability	High	84%	0.99
Openness to Experience	Medium	56%	0.14
Agreeableness	High	80%	0.83
Polychronicity	High	99%	2.1

Scores and Their Interpretation:

- a. For each trait, you have been classified as being LOW, MEDIUM or HIGH. It should be noted that this classification is not an absolute one, but a relative one. These classifications are based on our national norms on a sample of entry-level job aspirants. For instance, a person, who is high on Extraversion, is as extraverted as the top 33% people in our norm group. He/she may not still be extraverted enough for a given role or a standard set by another individual.
- b. A low percentile does not mean bad performance and high percentile does not mean good performance, as there is no concept of performance in personality.
- c. For each trait, a Z-score is provided. The Z-score measures the number of standard deviations the score is away from mean of norm. A Z-score more than +0.44 means the candidate is in the top 33%, whereas a Z-score of less than -0.44 represents the candidate is in the lowest 33%.
- d. This report is best interpreted by a psychologist. The candidate is strongly advised not to take any action on the basis of this report without referring to a well-qualified psychologist.

SECTION II: DESCRIPTION OF YOUR PERSONALITY

This section provides you a detailed description of your personality traits.

They like the company of people and enjoy social gatherings. They need external stimulation and get energized while interacting with people. They have lots of friends and thrive for making new social contacts. They like to work in groups and prefer to lead others.

Your scores suggest that you do not like to interact with too many people and like to keep to yourself. You do not like excitement seeking activities, and stimulations and thrills do not appeal to you. You enjoy spending time with yourself. You prefer to work alone rather than in a group. You think before speaking or acting, and like to keep your ideas to yourself.

Your score indicates you are High on Conscientiousness.

Conscientiousness has been called by some psychologists as the Will to Achieve. It is generally seen to have two components, one of striving for achievement and the other of dependability. The latter is characterized by being Emotional stability refers to being in a state of psychological steadiness. Emotionally stable people are even tempered and relaxed and they tend to have higher emotional intelligence. On the other hand, people low on emotional stability are likely to experience negative emotions like anxiety, depression, embarrassment and insecurity on small stimuli from the environment. These people have a tendency to exaggerate minor mutations.

Open individuals are creative, willing to challenge authority and entertain new ideas. They have intuitive thinking and can adapt to change easily. They are progressive and prefer to explore new ways and ideas of doing things.

You would be moderately interested in the aesthetics and your intensity of emotions and feelings is comparable to most people. You seek a balance between the conventional path and experimentation with new ways. You are generally open to new things. But if something crosses its limit, you'll never favor it. You are suspicious of anything too much out of the way.

Agreeableness

Your score indicates you are High on Agreeableness.

Agreeableness refers to social conformity, friendliness, compliance and altruism. Agreeable people are sympathetic to others, help others and trust others to help them too in return. They are popular amongst their colleagues and do not believe in manipulating people. Agreeable people are good for customer relationship profiles and work well in teams.

Individuals high on this trait shall like to engage in multiple activities at a given time, whereas those low shall prefer to just do one thing at a time. This trait measures the personality disposition of a person to multi-task and does not measure the ability to do so.

You have a high score on the multi-tasking scale. This shows that you prefer to do multiple tasks simultaneously, switching in between as per need basis. Rather than doing a single task or project, you shall like to do several of them together. Your working approach shall be to make some progress on multiple tasks than completing one task to the fullest and then moving to the next task. You will like to work in an environment which involves multitasking and shall not be put off by that. You believe this is an efficient way of doing things.

SECTION III: YOUR PERSONALITY TYPE

Based on your personality traits, your personality type is determined as below.

You are a "Protector"

Chapter VI. IMPROVE YOUR EMPLOYABILITY

To be able to improve your employability you need to concentrate on improving your weak areas while maintaining your strengths. This chapter shall guide you to resources and a plan to do this. Based on your weak areas as enumerated in Chapter III and improvement areas for specific job profiles(discussed in Chapter V), you should take next steps to improve your employability. To do this effectively you need to pick the right books/resources/training for each area and spend a balanced amount of time on across subjects.

Our intelligent feedback system, based on your weaknesses and strengths has picked material to refer to and created a study time schedule. Both when used effectively can help you improve your employability substantially.

SECTION I: SUGGESTED TIME SCHEDULE

Based on your performance, we have come up with a time schedule. By following this time schedule, you can ensure that you will continue to maintain your strong modules, while improve substantially in those that are lacking.

The pie chart below, tells you about how much time you should ideally be spending on different modules. Always remember, it is required to spend a fixed amount of time on all modules even though you might be strong in them. Perfection is said to come from continuous practice.

And for the modules in which you might be lagging a bit, there is always time for improvement. So just put your chin down and start working on them from today. It has to start somewhere, it has to start sometime. What better place than here, what better time than now?

We also provide you a time split for each section in the module. Based on your performance, we automatically adjust times so that you spend more time on weak sub-sections in a module and less in others. This is contrary to what students generally do! They keep doing questions which they are able to solve and do not attempt those which they find tough. To improve your weak areas, you just need to do the opposite. Spend more time preparing for weak areas, even if it takes more time to learn and practice it.

We hope that your performance analysis has helped you understand your strengths and weaknesses. Let us now understand what your next steps should be.

Chapter VII. NEXT STEP

Once upon a time a very strong woodcutter asked for a job with a timber merchant, and he got it.

The salary was really good and so were the work conditions. For that reason, the woodcutter was determined to do his best. His boss gave him an axe and showed him the area where he was supposed to work. The first day, the woodcutter brought 18 trees "Congratulations," the boss said. "Go on that way!"

Very motivated by the boss' words, the woodcutter tried harder the next day, but could bring 15 trees only.

The third day he tried even harder, but could bring 10 trees only. Day after day he was bringing less and less trees. "I must be losing my strength", the woodcutter thought.

He went to the boss and apologized, saying that he could not understand what was going on.

"When was the last time you sharpened your axe?" the boss asked. "Sharpen? I had no time to sharpen my axe. I have been very busy trying to cut trees..."
